McIntosh and Campbell look for more Breeders Crown magic

by Rich Fisher

Forget about holiday protocol, Bob McIntosh is jumping right over Halloween and American Thanksgiving. "It will be a little bit of Christmas if we get the right trip," said McIntosh, referring to his horse L A Delight in Saturday's (Oct. 29) $500,000 Breeders Crown for 3-year-old female pacers at the Meadowlands.

McIntosh is the trainer and co-owner and co-breeder, along with C S X Stables and Al McIntosh Holdings Inc. He is once again teamed up with driver John Campbell, as the two have won five Breeders Crowns together.

"John and I have been together for, I don't know how many years, 30 years or more I guess," McIntosh said. "I've got confidence in John and I've got confidence in the filly."

Their most recent win came with Thinking Out Loud, another McIntosh homebred, in 2014. Their first successes came in 1992 with Artsplace and So Fresh. They won with Immortality the following year, and took first with Western Shooter in 2001.

Race 2 News

And while McIntosh feels every win is special, two Breeders Crown triumphs that jump out to him did not involve Campbell as the driver. One was his first Crown win with Sunset Warrior in 1986, who was a longshot going in. The other came in 1997 with Artiscape, who was co-owned by Brian Monieson and George Segal's Brittany Farms. Monieson had cancer that year and it was the last time he got to see Artiscape race, as he passed away a short time later.

"That brought a tear to my eye when I saw Brian in the winner's circle," McIntosh said. "It was karma. Good things happen to good people. Brian was a great owner and a great guy."

McIntosh would love nothing more than to create another great moment and feels he has a horse capable of doing so. L A Delight, by Bettor's Delight out of the Western Hanover mare West of L A, has won nine races and $540,276 this season, hitting the board in 13 of 16 starts. She has earned $1,073,403 in her short career.

"She's had a great season," the trainer said.

Campbell drove her to the win in the Jugette at Delaware on Sept. 21, which McIntosh felt, "was the ultimate."

Race 3 News

"She's in against those top fillies and beat them," he said. "Any time you win one of those big races, it's always great."

He also felt it was "pretty sweet" that she went undefeated in the Ontario Sires Stakes.

In her Breeders Crown elimination last weekend she got away last but managed to rally to a second-place finish despite some fatigue.

"I think she raced as good as she could in the elimination, she got a nice trip," McIntosh said. "She spent 15 hours on a truck going down there, but that's the way it goes. I think she'll even be better this week."

L A Delight drew the eight hole, which doesn't have the trainer too thrilled. But with the Breeders Crown's all-time winningest driver in the bike he doesn't discount the McIntosh-Campbell magic being conjured once more.

"We didn't draw where I wanted to, we've got some good fillies on the inside of us, but I'll leave it up to John to figure out the trip," McIntosh said. "John is Mr. Dependable. The more there is in the purse the better he drives. With big money he's a great driver. He's one of the best big money drivers."

THE 50¢ CAL EXPO PICK 6

Winning tickets with six correct selections will share in 75% of the daily net pool, and 100% of the carryover. Ticket holders with five correct selections share in 25% of the daily net pool.

If there are no tickets with six winners, all ticket holders with the greatest number of winners share in 25% of the daily net pool, with the remainder of the net pool carried over to the next racing day.

There is a mandatory payout of the entire net pool on the last night of the race meet. (.50 cent minimum)

Race 4 News

"If the trip comes up favorable I think we can get the job done with a little luck — a lot of luck. I have great respect for the other fillies too. She'll figure it out, I guess. But who knows? If she finishes in the top three I'll be happy."

McIntosh said his horse is very laid back, unassuming and easy on herself. But that changes once she is on the track.

"I trained her down as a 2-year-old, by then I had two or three better than her," he said. "Then she got behind the starting gate, she showed she's a warrior and wanted to win. She has a big time desire to win."

"She's just perfect. No lameness issues, no nothing. I would say she makes us all look smart. Some of them are a little tougher to get where you want them, but she's been just picture perfect."

McIntosh enters the race second to Jimmy Takter in Breeders Crown wins and wouldn't mind getting closer.

"I was leading for a long time, but he got me," McIntosh said with a laugh. "But I'll settle for one more — this year, anyway."

Should it happen, feel free to stop by the McIntosh stable for a celebratory eggnog.

Bee A Magician seeks third Breeders Crown title on Friday

by Ken Weingartner

Several months ago it might have seemed a long shot to see Bee A Magician in the Breeders Crown, but now that she's there she is one of the favorites.

Bee A Magician, who didn't race competitively for nearly five months because of a tendon injury, is the 2-1 second choice in Friday's (Oct. 28) $250,000 Breeders Crown Mare Trot at the Meadowlands. Hannelore Hanover, who has won 15 of 18 races this season, is the 8-5 morning line favorite.

The Meadowlands hosts the four Breeders Crown Open events on Friday and championships for 2- and 3-year-olds on Saturday. Post time is 7:15 p.m. Friday and 3:35 p.m. Saturday (in California)

This will be Bee A Magician's fifth appearance in a Breeders Crown final. She won trophies at ages 3 and 4, finished third at 2, and was fourth last year when she tried her luck against the boys in the Open Trot.

Bee A Magician heads to this year's Mare Trot off a win in the $250,000 Yonkers Invitational Trot on Oct. 15. The race was contested at 1-1/4 miles. It was Bee A Magician's first start since winning an Open Handicap at Yonkers on May 21.

"We only really went to Yonkers to give her a race," trainer Nifty Norman said about Bee A Magician, who is four-for-four this year and has won 45 of 69 career races, good for $3.94 million in purses. "That it turned out to be a $250,000 race and you end up winning it was all a bonus. It worked out great."

Norman had no expectations when Bee A Magician returned to action.

"Her second qualifier was very good and she does amazing things all the time, but you can't be confident after being off for five months," Norman said. "It was always going to be as much time as she needed (to come back). We were never going to rush her. We never really had a goal. The Breeders Crown was always a long shot. But then the leg really did well. Everything was one day at a time, and it still is."

"She never lost any muscle," Norman said. "She's just an amazing athlete. She looked good the whole time. That was a big help. We ultra-sounded the leg every month and you could see it gradually getting better. She never took a back-

"Hopefully we're out of the woods. Tendons are always a pain to fix. Not many horses do that, have a tendon and come back and be just as good at that level. That's her."

Bee A Magician was the 2013 Horse of the Year in both the U.S. and Canada. She is owned by Mel Hartman, Herb Liverman, and David McDuffee. If she wins the Mare Trot she will join Peace Corps, Grades Singing, and Mack Lobell as the only trotters with at least three trophies in the series.

Friday's Mare Trot features a field of eight horses, but includes defending champion D'One and two-time Breeders Crown winner Shake It Cerry.

D'One, a star in Sweden trained by Roger Walmann, returned to the U.S. in mid-September. She has prepped for the Breeders Crown with two qualifiers, but has not raced competitively, in part because the Allerage Mare Trot earlier this month failed to attract enough horses.

"It's a pretty even field, really," Norman said about the Mare Trot. "Hannelore Hanover is probably still the horse to beat. Shake It Cerry is a champion. D'One, she hasn't raced, but is

Breeders Crown 3-year-old colt pace is 'most important race' for Burke

by Ken Weingartner

Ron Burke will send high-profile stars Hannelore Hanover and Southwind Frank into Breeders Crown action this weekend, but neither horse will be in the event the trainer considers the most important to his stable.

Burke, who has 17 horses spread throughout nine of the dozen Breeders Crown races at the Meadowlands, considers Saturday's $500,000 final for 3-year-old male pacers integral to a successful weekend. Burke has four horses in the event, led by one of last week's elimination winners, Check Six.

Check Six, the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes champion, has won nine of 19 races this year and earned $801,415. The son of 2008 Breeders Crown champ and Horse of the Year Somebeachsomewhere, Check Six captured his elimination by 1-1/4 lengths in 1:50.3. He is joined in the final by stablemates Fine Diamond, Fernando Hanover, and Manhattan Beach.

"To me that's the most important race for my barn," said Burke, who has won nine Breeders Crown trophies in his career as a trainer and five as an owner. "We've got four of us in there; we need to do well out of that group. I think we can do good there. The horses all seem to be sharp."

Check Six will start from post two. Western Fame, the other elimination winner, will leave from post one and Racing Hill, who finished fourth in Check Six's elim but is a multiple-stakes-winner of $1.33 million this season, is in post five.

"I love his spot," Burke said. "He was good. It's just that once in a while he throws a dud in, and I'm just hoping it's not this week. But I love his spot. It's a huge spot for him. He has the chance to go over a million dollars. There are so many things he could do for himself and his career by putting in a good performance here."

Fernando Hanover, who was second by a nose to Western Fame in his elimination, and third-place finisher Manhattan Beach drew posts eight and nine, respectively, in the 10-horse field. Fine Diamond, who was fifth in Check Six's elim, will start from post four.

been their style anyhow," Burke said. "When there's not a definite favorite, that's usually when you see more action and movement, and that leads to you being able to race from the back."

In other Breeders Crown races, Burke's Hannelore Hanover is the 8-5 morning line favorite in Friday's $250,000 Mare Trot. The field includes three past Breeders Crown champions — two-time winners Bee A Magician and Shake It Cerry plus defending champion D'One.

Joining Hannelore Hanover in the race from the Burke Stable is Classical Annie.

Hannelore Hanover has won 15 of 18 starts this year and earned $896,111. She heads to the Breeders Crown off a seventh-place finish against male rivals in the Oct. 15 Yonkers International Trot. She started from post one and went off stride in the first turn.

"That was her first start on a half-mile track and maybe the rail was the worst spot for her," Burke said. "She kind of just didn't make the turn. With the rail, you need to make a hard left and she just didn't get it. It doesn't bother me whatsoever. She trained great this week. She moves back to the Meadowlands, which she loves. I expect she will race well."

Southwind Frank is a returning Breeders Crown champion, having won the 2-year-old male trot last year on his way to the division's Dan Patch Award. This year Southwind Frank finished third in his elimination behind Sutton and Marion Marauder, but was beaten by only a head. Bar Hopping won the other elimination for Saturday's $500,000 final.

A son of two-time Breeders Crown champion and 2009 Horse of the Year Muscle Hill, Southwind Frank has won six of 13 races this year and earned $1.05 million. He has been beaten by a neck or less in four races, including the Hambletonian and Kentucky Futurity, where he suffered a flat tire.

"We're back to the drawing board on his gait a little bit, but usually in the final he gets it together and he should be good," Burke said. "I have a good feeling about this week that we can have him ready to go. There are four horses — him, Sutton, Marion Marauder and Bar Hopping — that so far are a step above the other ones. We'll see come this week. It's a good group of trotters.

"Overall this year has been a disappointment because I really do believe he's the best horse. He wasn't right at the right times and (Marion Marauder) was right at the right times. I'd like to keep working through his problems and at least prove one more time that this horse is a champion and deserves to be considered that."

Burke sends three horses into Saturday's $600,000 Breeders Crown for 2-year-old male pacers — Miso Fast, Normandy Beach, and Filibuster Hanover. Miso Fast finished second to Huntsville in his elimination and Normandy Beach was second to Downbytheseaside in his elim. Filibuster Hanover finished fifth in Downbytheseaside's race, but Burke is hopeful the Somebeachsomewhere-sired colt can improve starting from post No. 1 in the final.

Filibuster Hanover, who is a half-brother to Fernando Hanover and whose family includes Breeders Crown champion Galleria, has won only two of 11 races this year but defeated Huntsville in one and Downbytheseaside in the other.

"I know he pulled one of his clown moves the other day trying to go out the third turn at the Meadowlands, but I like him," Burke said, referring to Filibuster Hanover drifting wide around the final turn and falling back to last place

THE WARM-UPS

The track is busy between races, with horses warming-up for later races. Standardbreds are a rugged breed and this activity enhances their performance. About two hours prior to racing, the trainer will "jog" the horse, the same way any athlete runs to loosen-up prior to competing. Generally, the horse is jogged by going the "wrong way" (clockwise) on the track, following a traffic pattern that is standard on tracks all over North America. About an hour before his race, he's warmed-up again. Different trainers have different methods. Some go slowly, others ask for speed. Only experts can detect such things as lameness. Look, though, to see if his gait is fluid. If it is, chances are he's ready to do his best. As a rule, those working out between races ONE and TWO are in final preparation for the FOURTH RACE, those between TWO and THREE will be preparing for the FIFTH RACE, etc.

SADDLE PADS

Saddle pads at Cal Expo will indicate the horse's betting number and the race number in a smaller size, in upper right hand corner. In the adjacent example: HORSE NUMBER 3 IN THE SEVENTH RACE.

before rallying to grab the last qualifying spot for the final. "But he's now got the rail, where we can be very aggressive with him. He was very good at Lexington when we did that.

"That horse can pace with any horse I have. He's a fast horse, he's just very inconsistent. I'm just hoping this week he trends the right way. He's in a great spot and I think he really could surprise."

Burke also has multiple horses in Saturday's $600,000 Breeders Crown for 2-year-old male trotters and Friday's $250,000 Mare Pace.

What The Hill, another son of Muscle Hill, finished second to world champion Walner in his elimination for the 2-year-old male trot, but has enjoyed success at the Meadowlands, winning this year's New Jersey Sire Stakes championship and Peter Haughton Memorial there.

"He was super last week," Burke said. "He came back to the Meadowlands and it seems to be his track. He really likes it. I know Walner, everyone thinks it's a given, but our horse can trot. If we get away in the right spot we'll at least make it a race."

Joining What The Hill in the race from the Burke Stable is Snowstorm Hanover, who finished fifth in his elimination, which was won by Sortie.

In the Mare Pace, Burke has Sassa Hanover and Skipkin By. The 4-year-old Rock N Roll Heaven-sired Sassa Hanover has four wins in 22 races this season, but two of the victories came in her last three starts. Lady Shadow is the 8-5 morning line favorite.

"She was super last week and trained out of her mind," Burke said about Sassa Hanover, who has earned $1.06 million in her career. "She's finally starting to show what we thought too. Maybe she just had the 4-year-old blues. I do have a good feeling about her. She really is coming back around.

"Lady Shadow is a freak when she's good, but she's not a hundred percent that you can count on her every week. I've got to hope for her to be not as good and I've got to hope for my horse to be better."

Rounding out the list of Burke starters in the Breeders Crown are Crazy Wow in Friday's $500,000 Open Trot, All Bets Off in Friday's $421,000 Open Pace, and Rockette in Saturday's $600,000 2-year-old filly pace.
